Brother John from HIL shared his faith with Christopher from Eleke Primary and Festo from Wolo Primary School. We were greatly encouraged by how the HIL staff and the BGM team took the chance to share their faith with the children during their visit to the Centre. Their response exceeded our expectations.

The three girls, Flavia, Prosy, and Vanessa, committed to follow Jesus. In photo 6b Brother Richard led them in the salvation prayer, and they publicly confessed that Jesus is the Lord of their lives. Photo 6c. Benon and Sharon get the Youth Centre ready for the Children Fest. The Centre is comprised of two extensively furnished work areas and a control room, having over 30 computers. Our vision for the Centre is to provide a space that aids in the development of children's spiritual, physical, social, emotional, and cognitive abilities. Photos 9c, Photo 9d, Photo 9e, and Photo 9f: show children enjoying the Youth Fest activities in a serene environment.

L-R: Justine, Sharon, and Annet of BGM fellowship with Ssensiti and Benon from LF. This was a day before the VBS event. These three hardworking ladies made sure that the Youth Centre was ready for the children and organized all the necessary writing materials for the letter-writing activity. They were also instrumental in keeping the children organized during the competitions. It was truly inspiring to see these courageous women in action, always ready to help when needed. Annet in particular stood out as an excellent leader, and it was clear to see why she is the wife of Brother Charles, the leader of BGM. I am excited to work with Annet and her team on future projects.

Several children from Eleke, Wolo, and St. Daniels arrived at the Centre. Upon arrival, they provided their personal information and were assigned to a team - Revelation (green), Epistles (blue), Acts (red), or Gospels (orange). The children then had the opportunity to explore and interact with the computer equipment. In photo 11e, Benon places a marker on Nyakuni Vincent, while in photo 11f, Azizi admired the technology. The children were informed that they could return to the Centre for computer and Bible lessons whenever they desired.

Bible completion: In Photo 12b, Chris is seen reciting a bible verse to the team while Justine watches in awe. Chris is from St. Daniels and is the son of Brother Charles and his lovely wife Annet from BGM. In Photo 12c, Bruno, who comes from a non-Christian family, quickly reads through the bible before raising his hand to give the correct answer. He has been attending all of our bible lessons for the past three years. The children were well-prepared for the bible competition due to a variety of engaging bible activities that have helped them become more familiar with God's Word. We would like to express our gratitude to NUBF for repeatedly sending us to them.

Computer competitions: Aringa children are quickly learning computer skills despite limited resources. We know their social welfare and future job opportunities depend on their understanding of the digital world. We plan to introduce them to guided and secure internet browsing in the future. This will help them access information and learning opportunities, as well as communicate with the rest of the world.

Eating time. We had the pleasure of sharing a meal with the children, thanks to the support provided by NUBF. Your generosity allowed not only the children but also the teachers and facilitators to have two meals. The amazing catering team from HIL prepared the food and provided cups and plates for everyone to use. It was heartwarming to see the children from Wolo, St. Daniel, and Eleke come together and bond over these meals.

Replying letters. The letters that were sent by NUBF families brought a big smile to the children who received them. It was evident that each child felt loved and valued upon receiving a reply to their letter.

Group pictures for the participating teams. We had 4 teams consisting of participants of different ages. It was encouraging to see the older children looking out for the younger teammates. Team Gospels emerged as the overall winner with the highest score in all activities.

As the program comes to a close, Canon Barnabas blesses the children. In Photo 17b, we can see the children showing their reverence by bowing their heads in prayer to honor God.
